Given under our hands this the 8th day of March, 1904.

D. W. GARDNER,
Chairman Democratic Executive Committee 10th Congressional District of Kentucky.
W. M. BYINGTON, Secretary.

Of Interest in the Kitchen.

Matter of varied interest to the housewife is provided in the April Delineator. An article on serving the formal luncheon and dinner contains many practical suggestions, and is illustrated effectively. Dainty Dishes for Easter, illustrated, is of reasonable interest. Luncheon Dishes and Entrees from Left-overs will prove a valuable aid to economy, and Delaware Hot Breads seem tempting enough to dispose of even the objections of cold bread advocates. Delicious Sweet Fritters and Novel Oyster Recipes are other culinary topics.

LEE CITY LOCALS.

Measles have about died out and everybody is attending to business.

Leroy Glover has bought two yoke of big oxen, for which he paid over $200. He is hauling spoke timber with them.

M. P. Society is increasing fast in this country. They have about 70 members in both lodges here, and have made a big success.

Court sat Wednesday and tried John C. Stricklin, finding him $39.90. They fined Nick Sloan $50 for giving Tricky's wife whisky.

E. P. Hobbs and wife went to the Trent fork of Red River visiting today, and have had a pleasant day. They took dinner with Geo. Tredway.

Tricky Tom has gone to his old stamping ground. He fired the lockup here, and the Judge put him under $250 bond to appear at the next circuit court.

The town marshal and R. A. Dunn put Tricky Tharp's wife in the lockup, and on the same night put Tricky in. Dunn and Allen also put in Bruce Nickell, John Jennings and Nick Sloan. They were all fined except Tricky's wife.

On Friday the case of Allison Rose and E. W. Phipps was called. Howard Stamper, of Campton, appeared for Rose, and is almost impossible to beat him. Anyhow he got the hog turned over to Rose. It is said Phipps has paid out $25 and Rose about $80, for a hog not worth over $5 at the utmost.

Williams-Day.

Robert N. Williams and Miss Clara Day were married at Frozen, Breathitt county, Saturday, March 5th.

The bride is a daughter of Judge Nathan B. Day and a sister of Walter R. and Carl Day, members of the firm of N. B. Day & Co., which does a very large business in lumber, ties, coal and general merchandise. Walter Day was elected State Treasurer on the Republican ticket when Taylor was elected Governor. Carl Day is the present Representative in the State General Assembly. Mrs. Williams is associated in the business management of the firm. The family is one of the wealthiest and most prominent socially and in business in the mountain section.

Robert N. Williams is a son of Wm. M. Williams, of near Forge Hill, well-known as one of our best citizens. Robert went to school here and has a host of friends. He is an ambitious and pushing young fellow, having stumped considerably as a speaker in campaigns for his (Republican) party and also spent some years in the West. He has been in the employ of W. R. Day & Co. for about one year. The Jackson Hustler says of him: "He is a young man of excellent business qualifications and high morals and commands a host of friends throughout this section." The Outlook joins Robert's many friends here in wishing him and his bride a happy and prosperous life together.—Owingsville Outlook.

Is the Laborer Worthy His Hire.

To THE Democrats of this Senatorial District, greeting: I am a candidate for the office of Senator from this district, subject to the action of the Democratic party, and ask all Democrats to weigh well my claims. For nearly 20 years I have been a citizen and a voter at Hazel Green, and by reason of my position I believe I can safely say I have done as much, if not more, for the success of the party than any man. In the time I have never scratched a ticket, and all in all I feel that I am not asking above my dues. Then, having become a mountain man, I have on all occasions taken pride in silencing slanders about mountain people, and in this I know I deserve the gratitude of a much-maligned people. Hoping you appreciate my past services sufficient to merit your continued confidence, and praying your support, I remain, Truly yours,

Our Candidate for President,
WM. RANDOLPH HEARST,
OF NEW YORK.

WM. RANDOLPH HEARST

Will Go Into the Convention City
With at Least 300 Delegates,
Says Senator Pettigrew.

Special Dispatch to THE HERALD.
NEW YORK, March 20.

The California Democratic State Committee has unanimously adopted a resolution declaring it to be the sense of that committee that the Democratic National Delegates should be instructed for Wm. Randolph Hearst.

Ex-Senator E. F. Pettigrew, just returned from an extensive Western trip, says Mr. Hearst will go into the convention city with at least 300 delegates.

M. F. IHMSEN.

Colds Cause Pneumonia.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by all druggists.

The papers announce that Max F. Ihmsen, the right hand man of Congressman William Randolph Hearst, arrived in Louisville a few days ago with an abundance of Hearst literature, and will at once inaugurate a boom for Mr. Hearst for the presidency, the disgruntled Courier-Journal to the contrary notwithstanding. Mr. Hearst is every day adding to his following in every State in the Union, and Kentucky will be in line for him by the time the national convention convenes. It is the people versus the politicians, and the people are en masse for Mr. Hearst in this race. That Wm. Randolph Hearst is "the gray-eyed man of destiny" admits of no doubt. No man on the American stage of affairs so nearly embodies all the essentials necessary to an energetic, enlightened chief executive as does Mr. Hearst, nor has any man so endeared himself to the people—common people, if you will—and we confidently anticipate his nomination and election.

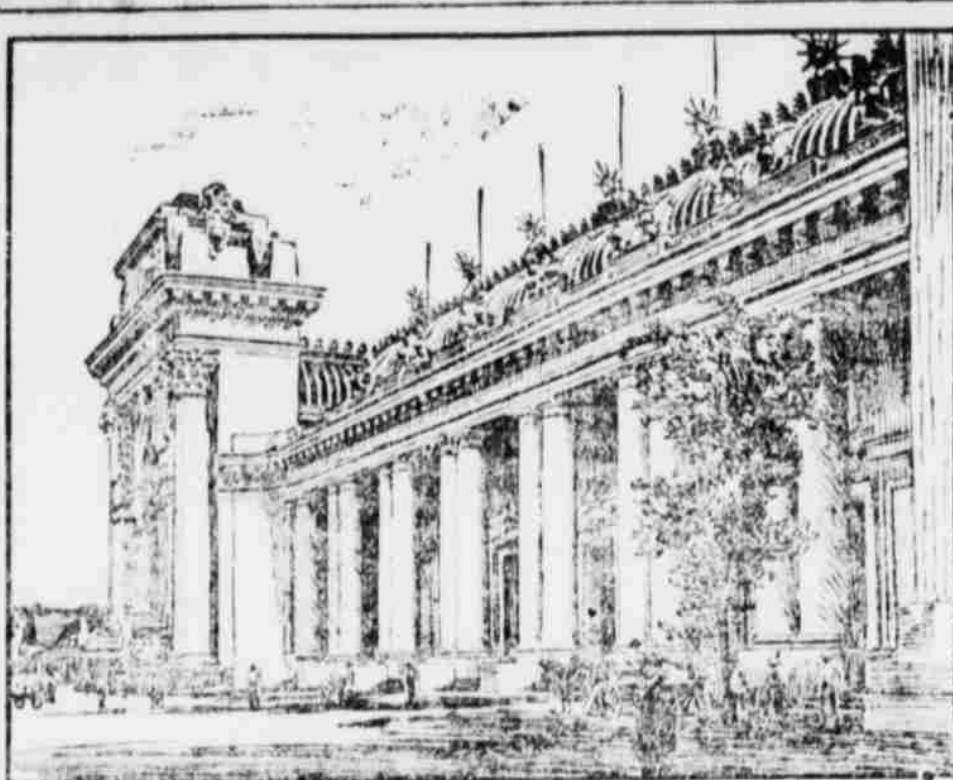

Tragedy Averted.

"Just in the nick of time our little boy was saved," writes Mrs. W. Watkins, of Pleasant City, Ohio. "Pneumonia had played sad havoc with him and a terrible cough set in besides. Doctors treated him, but he grew worse every day. At length we tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and our darling was saved. He is now sound and well." Everybody ought to know, it's the only sure cure for Coughs, Colds and all Lung diseases. Guaranteed by all druggists. Price 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

"Whistling Billy" Swango, of Montgomery county, a few days since sent us two or three pounds of twist smoking tobacco, including two kinds, and a dozen or so home rolled cigars, for which he will accept thanks. Curtis Rose of Lacy creek, also has our thanks for delivering the goods.

COMFORT OF VISITORS TO THE WORLD'S FAIR.

Excellent Provision Made For Public Convenience In the Grounds and Buildings of the Exposition—Everything Necessary Provided For.

Special attention has been paid by the builders of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition to the comfort of those who will attend. It is not an exaggeration to assert that no previous exposition has provided so many public conveniences. First of all, there will be plenty of places where one may sit down and rest after seeing the sights until physical fatigue demands relaxation. And this calls to mind an amusing little story of the Columbian exposition at Chicago.

The little granddaughter of Professor J. M. Greenwood, superintendent of public schools in Kansas City, attended the exposition with relatives, who made it their business to show the child many things that would be educative. From time to time the party found it necessary to sit down and rest. Returning home, the learned grandfather asked the little girl this question: "Well, my dear, from what one thing that you saw at the fair did you derive the greatest benefit?"

"The chairs, grandpa," promptly replied the child.

The chairs will be greatly in evidence at St. Louis. Thousands of comfortable one bottom chairs and settees for the free use of visitors will be found in the retiring rooms in the great exhibit palaces. But at this Exposition there will be resting places unknown to former fairs, for within the grounds there are many acres of wooded land which are not occupied by buildings. With 1,240 acres at their disposal it has been an easy matter for the builders to create the biggest Exposition ever known and still have many breathing spaces to spare. Under the trees of the forest—a part of Forest Park—the public will find numerous seats, where, beneath the cooling shade, may be enjoyed a reasonable period of rest, so that the visitor, as though sitting in a quiet park, may look beyond the trees at the domes and towers of the Exposition.

In each of the exhibit palaces and the state and foreign buildings there are public retiring rooms, many of which are provided with wash basins. Scattered throughout the grounds will be a number of separate structures for similar uses. Provision will be made whereby for a small fee the visitor may have toilet accommodations with water and towels.

As to drinking water the foot-toter need have no fears. An arrangement has been made with a concern that will bring pure clear water from a famous spring at De Soto, Mo., to be piped over the grounds from large tanks, refilled twice daily and supplied to the visitors at attractive booths for a cent or so a drink, which means as many glasses as one may require to quench the thirst. Filtered water from the Mississippi river also will be supplied.

Those whose zeal for seeing the sights is in excess of their walking or standing powers may hire roller chairs at a small expense, and for traveling greater distances in the grounds the Intramural Railway, with comfortable cars specially constructed for observation purposes, will furnish a mode of conveyance superior to any yet provided at an exposition.

Then there will be the 2,500 Jefferson Guards in uniform, a part of whose business will be to give free information to visitors. These are bright young men, many of whom will have been on duty for months prior to the opening, and they are expected to be walking encyclopedias of Exposition information, able to direct the visitor about the grounds without consulting a guidebook.

An excellent hospital system is being installed, with several branch hospitals, where capable physicians and nurses will be on hand, so that in the event of illness prompt attention and treatment may be had.

COST OF SEEING THE WORLD'S FAIR.

For the Majority of Visitors It Will Be Less Than Railroad Transportation to St. Louis and Return Would Cost in Any Other Year.

From any point within 300 miles of St. Louis a person may travel to the World's Fair this year, view the wonders of the Exposition for three days and expend less money than in any other year he would pay for train fare alone.

This may seem an astonishing statement, but it is a fact.

Railroad men have practically determined that "one fare for the round trip" will be the rate during the seven important months of 1904. Public announcement of this only waits the passage of certain legislation concerning "scalpers'" tickets and formal indorsement by the various passenger agents' associations.

With this fact in mind a clear demonstration of the statement in the opening paragraph can be made.

The fare from Chicago is $7.50, or $15 the round trip. So under the new schedule $7.50 will be put down as the railroad fare from that city to St. Louis and return. If you are economical, your per diem expenses in the World's Fair City need not exceed those given in this table:

Breakfast $0.25
Car fare to grounds05
Admission to grounds50
Dinner on grounds50

Car fare downtown25
Supper25
Night's lodgings 1.00

Total $2.45

Multiply $2.45 by 3, and you have $7.35, the sum total for three days' sightseeing. Add to this the $7.50 railroad fare, and you have a grand total of 15 cents less than the car fare alone would cost you in any other year.

For this money you have thrown open to you the thirteen grand exhibition palaces, the forty and more state buildings, the fifteen and more foreign government structures, the ten great stone edifices temporarily from Washington university, including the Hall of Congresses and the Physical Culture Hall, with its adjoining Stadium, the Filipino Village and many other pleasant places.

Should you desire to remain longer than the three days you can do so without a greater per diem expenditure than given above.

But, supposing that you have plenty of money to spend and desire certain comforts and even luxuries, yet are not extravagant, what will the figures be? Less than $5 a day!

Breakfast $0.50
Car fare05
Admission to one or more Concessions on the Pike50
Dinner50
Souvenirs and extras50
Supper50
Car fare05
Hotel room 1.50

Total per diem $3.05

Suppose you desire to remain six days. In that time you can devote a morning to one main building, an afternoon to another, and so on, from Monday to Saturday, inclusive, passing the evenings on the Pike, and the grand total of the week's expenditures will be $29.10.

BOXER BREEZES.

G. B. Rose and Leonard Taylor went to Stillwater Saturday to get a glimpse of the fairer sex.

There has been a good many cases of measles in this section but they are all getting better.

Now if any handsome young lady wants to marry an old bachelor that does his own cooking and eating, and has a jolly old time, I will just tell her to address a line to postoffice box 55, Boxer, Ky., and learn more about the matrimonial candidate.

Well, I will relate to you a true story of this place. The other day while cutting logs I noticed that the hollow below was almost filled with hawks, crows and buzzards. Not knowing why they were there, I concluded to watch them awhile, as I was very tired anyway. I soon found out that the hills were so high that they could not get over them. So, if you go crow hunting in old Breathitt stay in between two hills and you will find plenty of them.

When my fleeting pleasures are over,
And I'm sitting by the embers alone,
There's a breath from the bees and clover,
And a memory of the old folks at home—
That come and glow in the firelight,
Like visions thro' the mists of the years—
I see the faces of loved ones tonight
As their ghosts appear thro' my tears.

Such moments are claimed by the angels
To speed through the flesh to the soul,
And bring us nearer the portals
Of the City that glitters with gold;
For earth is the school of the spirit,
And the teachers the experience of life,
While the children of God, who are in it,
Are the toilers in this normal of strife.

Do You Want Strength?

If you want to increase your strength you must add to and not take from the physical. In other words, the food that you eat must be digested, assimilated and appropriated by the nerves, blood and tissues before being expelled from the intestines. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure adds to the physical. It gives strength to and builds up strength in the human system. It is pleasant to the taste and palatable, and the only combination of digestants that will digest the food and enable the system to appropriate all of its health and strength giving qualities. WEEDS

Consumption is a human weed flourishing best in weak lungs. Like other weeds it's easily destroyed while young; when old, sometimes impossible.

Strengthen the lungs as you would weak land and the weeds will disappear.

The best lung fertilizer is Scott's Emulsion. Salt pork is good too, but it is very hard to digest.

The time to treat consumption is when you begin trying to hide it from yourself. Others see it, you won't.

Don't wait until you can't deceive yourself any longer. Begin with the first thought to take Scott's Emulsion. If it isn't really consumption so much the better; you will soon forget it and be better for the treatment. If it is consumption you can't expect to be cured at once, but if you will begin in time and will be rigidly regular in your treatment you will win.

Scott's Emulsion, fresh air, rest all you can, eat all you can, that's the treatment and that's the best treatment.

Watch With a Shotgun.

Columbus Gillaspie tells us that while clearing up a piece of ground last week he left a new mattock, a sprouting hoe and a briar hook on the clearing. When he returned the trio of tools had been stolen by some sneak thief, and he would like to run down the robber rascal. Such thievery as this was unknown in this community until quite recently, and is therefore the more astounding. The boast has frequently been made that anything of value could be left out without locking up and be perfectly safe. Indeed it was the custom, and all the people indulged it to a greater or less extent. But from occurrences like the above it now seems that somebody is being educated in "ways that are dark and tricks that are vain," and the Gillaspie incident indicates that they are apt students. Lock up your tools or lay in wait with a shotgun.

The name Witch Hazel is much abused. E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, are the inventors of the original and only Witch Hazel Salve. A certain cure for Cuts, Burns, Bruises, Eczema, Tetter, Piles, etc. There are many counterfeits of this salve, some of which are dangerous, while they are all worthless. In buying Witch Hazel Salve see that the name E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, is on the box and a cure is certain. For sale by all druggists.

Unsigned Articles.

Several unsigned communications have been received this week, one from Rogers and two from Louisville, the latter done in machine or doggerel rhyme. Both of them are poking fun at a young man who, whatever his shortcomings, is an ardent friend of this paper, and one is so very rough in language that it would wound his feelings, if indeed, its publication did not lay us liable to a suit for libel. The longer piece signed "Jackanapes" is somewhat milder in tone, and under certain conditions could be published. But we pay no attention to anonymous communications and do not hanker after rymes. If the author of the last piece mentioned, however, will send us his name we may print it some time soon.

It Saved His Leg.

P. A. Danforth, of LaGrange, Ga., suffered for six months with a frightful running sore on his leg; but writes that Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured it in five days. For Ulcers, Wounds, Piles, it's the best salve in the world. Cure guaranteed. Only 25 cents. Sold by all druggists.

Mrs. Rilda Day left this day a week ago for Cincinnati, where she will lay in a new and fashionable stock of millinery, including feathers and furbelows. She will also purchase a line of dress goods and trimmings, and hopes to have her opening the Friday before Easter Sunday, announcement of which will appear in THE HERALD.

Woody, the little son of John Brooks and wife, on Sunday fell and broke his right arm just below the elbow joint. Drs. Center and Blake administered chloroform to render the little sufferer oblivious to pain and set the broken member, but the break being in a bad place, great care must be exercised else he may be a cripple.

S. F. Cockrell, writing from Bain, Texas, March 14, says John John S. Harper, formerly of this county, died Jan. 7th, of pneumonia; aged 62 years, 5 months and 26 days. He leaves a wife and eight children.

Bills printed at this office last week announce that Shelby Canoy has adopted a strictly cash business and resumed his Saturday auctions.

Fanny Richards, a half-sister of Mrs. John Robinson, died in Powell county Sunday and was buried on Monday.

State College of Kentucky.

THE AGRICULTURAL AND MECHANICAL (State College) College of Kentucky offers the following courses of study, viz: Agricultural, Horticultural, Chemical, Biological, Mathematical, Physical, Normal School, Classical, Mechanical Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Civil Engineering, each of which extends over four years and leads to a degree. Post Graduate studies are also provided, leading each to a Master's degree. Each course of study is organized under a separate faculty. The general faculty numbers more than 50 professors and instructors.

COUNTY APPOINTEES receive tuition, room rent in dormitories, fuel and lights, and if they remain 10 months, traveling expenses.

The laboratories and museums are large, well equipped, comprehensive and modern.

The Legislature appropriated $60,000 for a College home for young women and $30,000 for drill hall and gymnasium for men. The latter is completed and in use, the former will be ready for occupancy in October.

Military tactics and Science are fully provided for as required by Congress. Graduates from the several courses of study readily find excellent positions and liberal remuneration. The demand is largely in excess of the ability of the College to supply. Last year the matriculation list was 604.

Summer Schools are provided for Pedagogy, Engineering and instruction in Science.

Specialists with the necessary number of assistants have charge of each department of Natural Science.

The State College of Kentucky, though bearing hitherto the title of COLLEGE, is the only institution in the Commonwealth doing, in any proper sense, University work.

The completion of the College Home for young women will provide facilities for good board and lodging. It is equipped with all modern conveniences including bath rooms and room for physical culture. It will be heated by steam and lighted by electricity.

An opportunity is afforded to them of a thorough education in Classics, Modern Languages, Literature, Science, Mathematics, Logic, Metaphysics, History and Political Economy. No other institution in the State offers advantages for the education of women at all comparable to those offered by the State College of Kentucky.

For catalogues, method of obtaining appointments, information regarding courses of study, and terms of admission apply to

Try for Health

222 South Peoria St.,
CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 7, 1902.

Eight months ago I was so ill that I was compelled to lie or sit down nearly all the time. My stomach was so weak and upset that I could keep nothing on it and I vomited frequently. I could not urinate without great pain and I coughed so much that my throat and lungs were raw and sore. The doctors pronounced it Bright's disease and others said it was consumption. It mattered little to me what they called it and I had no desire to live. A sister visited me from St. Louis and asked me if I had ever tried Wine of Cardui. I told her I had not, and she bought a bottle. I believe that it saved my life. I believe many women could save much suffering if they but knew of its value.

George Dunbar

Don't you want freedom from pain? Take Wine of Cardui and make one supreme effort to be well. You do not need to be a weak, helpless sufferer. You can have a woman's health and do a woman's work in life. Why not secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist today?

For the time being H. E. Oney is the greatest star of attention, and the Campton Joking Club carries him "high and low" from morn till night. They call him "Doctor Oney," but we fail to see the point.

The surest(?) remedy for the torpidity of the social liver is waltzing and dancing. On Saturday evening as the stars shone bright and danced together with joy, the Stag Dancing Hall of this place was converted into a hospital for the invalids afflicted with the monstrous malady. Quite a few of the members gave a clever exhibition of the agility of his or her limbs amid the glowing splendors of the hall, and clod-hopped the time to the sweet strains of music rendered on the violin and organ. I. R. Hollon, who is nimble and handsome on the stage and stands high in the estimation of the spunky "Four Hundred," pronounces it the greatest dancing hit of the season. He reported the following as "some" of those present: C. F. Combs, H. H. Combs, T. M. Beckett and wife, G. W. Burke and wife, E. P. Berney and wife, I. R. Hollon and J. C. Chapin. There were others, but their names were withheld from the "confounded" editor of the Courier, who is always nosing about for news items. And it's verily we say unto you, "Whosoever taketh the name of the 'Four Hundred' in vain shall miss landing in the kingdom of God."

The Farmers and Traders Bank of this place has been in business one year. It has been a success from every point of view. The first year is usually the heaviest in expenses, but notwithstanding this fact the bank was able to declare a dividend of 17%. We feel sure if the bank had kept a record in THE HERALD it would have been twice that. The bank is officered by such able financiers and business men as S. G. Drushel, cashier; Geo. W. Halsey, president, and S. S. Combs, vice-president.

Inadvertently we have failed to mention in these columns a singing school which is being conducted by Prof. Clarke at the M. E. church two nights each week. Singing is uplifting, and we are glad to see the good work progress.

Two or three new wells are due to come in next week in the Campton Oil Field. With the opening of spring near at hand renewed interest is being taken in development work. A route of the pipeline has been surveyed.

Everybody should read THE HERALD and CAMPTON COURIER: two papers in one, and only 50c. a year. Think about it—the two best things out in the world of newspaperdom. Plunk up 50c. and subscribe—NOW.

The many friends and sympathizers of the versatile R. L. Athey will be glad to learn that he has the job of carrying the mail from Campton to Gosneyville.

I. W. Combs has sold his town lot adjoining the jail to Hanks & Catron, who will erect a mercantile building on it. Purchase price $270.

More Riots.

Disturbances of strikers are not nearly as grave as an individual disorder of the system. Overwork, loss of sleep, nervous tension will be followed by utter collapse, unless a reliable remedy is immediately employed. There's nothing so efficient to cure disorders of the liver or kidneys as Electric Bitters. It's a wonderful tonic, an effective nerve and the greatest all around medicine for run down systems. It dispels Nervousness, Rheumatism and Neuralgia, and expels Malaria germs. Only 50c., and satisfaction guaranteed by all druggists.

Judge Wheeler's youngest daughter, Miss Hattie, won a handsome book as a prize for writing the best composition on Sunday school work. Prof. Hopkins presented the gift to her on Friday night at the close of the stereopticon views, which were displayed at the Christian church.
